Northfield 350th Anniversary Fall Dinner Dance Ticket Sales Begin March 21

NORTHFIELD, MA. For most of us, the first day spring is an iffy thing that may or may not usher in an end to winter any time soon. But for farmers it is the day that heralds a new year of planting, tending and harvesting. This year, at the official changing of the season, Bonnie L'Etoile, of Four Star Farms in Northfield, and fellow Northfield resident Corinne Fitzgerald, of Fitzgerald Realty in Greenfield, will plant the "seeds" of a special farm-to-table event they have planned for the fall as part of Northfield's 350th Anniversary.

On March 21, 2023, L'Etoile and Fitzgerald will launch the pre-sale of tickets for the Northfield 350th Anniversary "Harvest Dinner Dance," a celebration in honor of 350 years of local agriculture. The event will take place on Saturday, September 23, 2023 at the Northfield Golf Club. Tickets for the locally-sourced dinner are $50 per person (cash or check) for an evening of great food prepared by Bash Catering and music by Sonic Entertainment. Beverages are extra from the Golf Club. According to Bonnie, "Everything will be procured from local farms, from the flowers, to the pumpkins, to the appetizers, the main course and dessert." Corinne Fitzgerald adds that "The maximum capacity is one hundred and fifty people, patrons must be 21 or older, and dress is 'casual chic'." There is no rain date.

Starting on March 21, tickets will be available at the following outlets: The Brewery at Four Star Farms, Cameron's Winery, Centennial House B&B, Mim's Market and Northfield Food Mart.

Underwriters for the Northfield 350th Anniversary include: the Town of Northfield, Greenfield Savings Bank, Senator Jo Comerford's Office, The Greenfield Recorder, Northfield Mount Hermon School, Thomas Aquinas College, Northeast Paving/Cold River Materials, First Light, generous family donors, WHAI-FM, Greenfield Northampton Cooperative Bank, Cohn and Company and the New England Grassroots Fund. The complete list appears on the 350th Anniversary website, www.northfield350.org.
